

NAMFS Board of Directors

For the past several months NAMFS members and non-members have expressed concern regarding receipt of payment for services provided. These concerns are something that NAMFS takes seriously, and although we do not look to arbitrate disputes, our focus is on facilitating communication between said parties. The NAMFS Board of Directors has provided the industry with information concerning placement of liens, as well as, information on a national debt collection company which can be found on our website.

Membership in NAMFS, in accordance with our by-laws, is at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
