The 2020 Industry Outlook: What Everyone Needs To Know About Regulations, Guidelines and the US Real Estate Market

Are you stressed by the mortgage field services industry and economic uncertainty? Learn about the current regulatory environment, the real estate market, and how to prepare now for the challenges facing the industry today and tomorrow. A distinguished group of panelists will bring a variety of perspectives to help you understand how the state of the mortgage field services industry impacts your business. They will help you stay at the forefront of the changing landscape, prepare for challenges ahead, and reduce your stress from the unknown.

Moderator: Rick Sharga

11:00 AM- 12:00 PM

Industry Got You Down? - Re-energizing Your Business

In any industry downturn, companies struggle to find new business and/or diversify their offerings as quickly as possible. Some are forced to contract, or even cease operations. There can be a tangible drain on energy, motivation, and morale as leaders evaluate their options. In this session, members who have tackled these issues in the recent past will share their experiences, which will include both successes and failures, all the while remaining in our industry.

Moderator: Chuck Sockol, Vice President, Gryphon Group

1:20 PM- 2:20 PM

Understanding the Servicing Landscape, What Your Clients Need

Hear directly from Servicers and Insurers on how the current landscape is impacting property preservation and how you can amplify your property services.

Moderator: Lindsey Pryor, Vice President, Altisource

2:30 PM- 3:30 PM
Worker Classification

This session will provide the latest updates on this topic, including NLRB, DOL and various state legal decisions.

Presenter: Blaze Knott, Attorney at Law, Littler Labor and Employment Law Solutions
